EXTERNAL

I will be happy to give extensions later in the case but a preliminary injunction is an expedited process. Thank you for understanding. With best regards.

Good afternoon, Mr. Vallejos:

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today regarding the Court's Order scheduling the briefing schedule and hearing on your Motion for Preliminary Injunction.

As discussed, we have not yet made an appearance in this matter on behalf of Sheriff Bianco, and thus were not aware until today of the Court's Order until today, which states that our Opposition to your Motion for Preliminary Injunction is due tomorrow. Unfortunately, we are not able to Oppose that Motion for Preliminary Injunction in that time frame because we just were retained in this matter and asked if you'd be willing to stipulate to an extension. You stated you would oppose any extension; thus, we told you we would need to bring an Ex Parte Application for Relief.

We will provide that Ex Parte Application to you today via e-mail and file it with the Court. As discussed, the Court usually gives you approximately 24 hours to respond.

If you have any further questions or concerns or will reconsider agreeing to an extension, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you,

Abigail
